

Homecoming Week Dress Guidelines

General Guidelines

- For Homecoming Week dress down days, students must maintain modesty and follow establish guidelines set up in the Student Handbook.
- No leggings, joggers, or tights are allowed, even if they are part of a costume.
- No shorts are allowed.
- No hoodies.
- No masks and no face paint.
- Jeans and khakis with a spirit shirt are acceptable on all days.
- Uniforms may worn on all days as well.

Monday- We're Not In Kansas Anymore

Dress Like a Cajun

- Jeans and Khakis
- Fishing shirts, Louisiana shirts, Mardi Gras shirts, etc.
- Overalls may be worn but must be pants. NO shorts allowed.
- Short or long sleeved shirts must be worn under overalls. NO tank tops.
- Shrimp boots, Grudens, cowboy boots, or steel toes are allowed. NO WADERS.
- Hats allowed before school or at recess. NO hats in classroom.

Cajun Outfits

Acceptable

No hats or mask.
Costume OK.

Not Acceptable

Tuesday: Twister Tuesday

Wacky dress day

- Students may style their hair wacky and wear wacky hair accessories.
- Any hair color MUST wash out by the next day.
- No designs shaved into heads/hair.
- Mismatched socks and shoes.
- Clothing patterns that do not match.
- Jeans or khakis or modest patterned pants. NO leggings or joggers.
- No shorts.
- No face paint.

Wacky Outfits

Acceptable

Not Acceptable

Wednesday: Which Witch is Which?

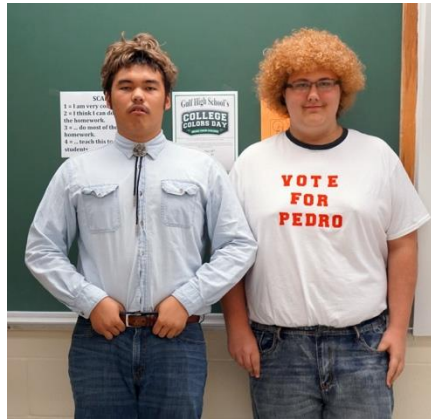

Twins and Dynamic Duos

- Students may dress as twins or as a dynamic duo.
- Duo must be appropriate in nature and reflect morality and values.
- Costumes ARE allowed, within guidelines set forth.
 - NO leggings or joggers. Jeans must be worn under costumes.
 - NO shorts.
 - NO tank tops (sleeved shirts required).
 - NO revealing costumes.
 - NO masks or face paint.

Twins/Dynamic Duos

Acceptable

Not Acceptable

OK but no masks

Thursday: Lions, Tigers, and Cardinals....Oh My! Homecoming shirts, spirit shirts, jeans or khakis

- Students may wear jeans or khakis.
- Homecoming shirts are to be worn on Thursday.
- Spirit shirts may be worn if students did not purchase a Homecoming t-shirt.
- Students may wear uniforms if they so choose.

Friday: Homecoming Mass

Mass attire

- Students must wear mass attire: boys should wear long sleeved oxfords and a tie.
- Football may change in jerseys after mass.